London, September 22.

AN Arrêt of the Parliament of Bourdeaux, dated the 28th of August 1716. having been printed there, has been transmitted hither. The Title of it is as follows.

'AN Arrêt of the Court of Parliament, denouncing the Sentences of performing the Amende honorable, ſerving in the Gallies for Life, Whipping, Standing in the Pillory, and other publick Puniſhments, againſt certain new Converts of the Town and Neighbourhood of Clairac, for holding unlawful Conventicles, and for other Offences in Breach of the King's Ordinances Edicts and Declarations.

'This Arrêt ſets forth in Subſtance, That the King's Attorney General in the Court of Bourdeaux having proſecuted divers Perſons, upon thoſe Edicts and Declarations which forbid new Converts any Exerciſe of the pretended reformed Religion, or to aſſemble for that purpoſe under Pretext of Praying, or of any other Acts of divine Worſhip in the Way of that pretended Religion; thoſe Perſons had been duely convicted. Their Names are,

'John Millet, Merchant.
'John Martin, Brewer.
'John Bergues, Sarge-Weaver.
'Mary Fabre, Widow.

'The Crimes proved upon them are,

'That Millet read to a Conventicle held in the Wood of Berdoulet.

'That Martin called ſeveral Perſons of the Pariſh of Unet to an Aſſembly held in the Night at Aucinanges, and that he himſelf was preſent there.

'That Bergues harboured in his Houſe one who in that Aſſembly read to the reſt.

'That Fabre ſuffered a Meeting to be held in her Houſe in the Night-time, and was preſent at it her ſelf.

'For which Crimes, the Parliament condemns the ſaid Millet and Martin to make Amende honorable, in their Shirts, with Halters about their Necks, each holding in his Hand a Wax-Taper burning of two Pound Weight, before the Metropolitan Church of St. Andrew in Bourdeaux, whither they ſhall be lead by the common Hangman, and there with their Heads bare, and on their Knees, ſhall aſk Pardon of God, the King, and Juſtice, and then be ſent to ſerve at the Oar in his Majeſty's Gallies as long as they live. The Parliament condemns the ſaid Bergues to be ſet with his Neck in the Pillory, in the publick Market of the Town of Clairac on a Market-Day, to ſtand there two Hours; then to be whipt naked by the common Hangman, with Twelve Stripes, three in each of the four chief Quarters or Streets of the ſaid Town of Clairac; and then to be baniſhed for ever out of the Diſtrict of Bourdeaux. The Parliament does alſo ſentence the ſaid Mary Fabre, to make Amende honorable in the ſame Manner as Millet and Martin, before the ſame Church; then to be ſhaved, and to be ſhut up as long as ſhe lives, in the Hoſpital of the Workhouſe of Bourdeaux; ordering beſides, that the Houſe in which ſhe dwelt, and in which the ſaid Conventicle was held, ſhall be demoliſhed and razed to the Ground, the Materials to be diſpoſed of for the Benefit of the Pariſh-Church to which ſhe belonged, and no Houſe to be ever built again on the ſame Ground, without the King's expreſs Permiſſion. Moreover, the Parliament confiſcates one Half of the Eſtates or Effects of the ſaid Millet, Martin, Bergues, and Fabre, to the King's Uſe; and orders that the whole Charge of the Proceedings againſt them, ſhall be taken out of the other Half.

London, September 22.

Yeſterday arrived four Mails from Holland: The laſt being dated Friday the 14th Inſtant.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

Venice, Sept. 12. On the 8th Inſtant arrived an Expreſs, diſpatched from Rome by Sig. Dudo our Ambaſſadour there, with Letters from the Captain General, containing the welcome News of the Raiſing of the Siege of Corfu, by the Turks, and of their precipitate Retreat from off that Iſland, which was done in ſuch Diſorder order in the Night of the 21st of August, that they left behind them all their Cannon, to the Number of about 30, and 10 Mortars, all their Powder, Meal, and other Things which were in their Camp, with a great Number of their Men, who not being able to get on board quick enough, were made Slaves; without reckoning those, which were cut in Pieces. All the Letters from Corfu relate, that they cannot sufficiently extol the Bravery Vigilance and Application which General Loredano and Field-Marshal Count Schulenbourg have shewn in the vigorous Defence of that Place. Te Deum has been solemnly Sung in the Church of St. Mark, and in all the other Churches of this City; and extraordinary Rejoycings have been made three Nights successively. The Senate have dispatched an Express with this News to the Emperour.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Sept. 25.

Vienna, Sept. 12. The Marquis de Prié set out on the 10th for the Hague, whence he is to proceed to Brussels, to take Possession of the Government of the Austrian Netherlands, during the Absence of Prince Eugene of Savoy. The Emperour has given Order for Remittances of Money to be made to Prince Eugene, for the use of the Army. The last Advices we have from it, tell us that the Siege of Temiswaer advanced successfully, being favoured by the fair Weather; so that it was hoped, if that Weather continued, they might be Masters of the Place about the 10th of next Month, the Turks being in no Condition to attempt to raise the Seige. Several Thousand Walachians have joyned the Imperial Army, which has so much enraged the Turks, that it is said they have resolved to ravage Walachia.

Hamburgh, Sept. 18. We have Advice from Denmark, that the Descent on Schonen is fixed to the 21st, or at fartheſt to the 25th of this Month: The Troops to be employed in it, make together Foot and Horse about 30000 Men. On the other hand it is advised from Sweden, that there are already above 20000 Men in Schonen, and that when the rest of the Troops are arrived, the King of Sweden will have an Army of at least 30000 Men; so that we are in Expectation of great News from those Quarters. His Swedish Majesty had sent Orders to his Fleet, which is at Carlscroon, to put to Sea again assoon as it is provided with all Necessaries.

Just Published,

The Art of Short Writing made Lineal and Legible, as the Common Long Hand: Laid down under such plain Rules, that it may be learnt without a Teacher; very useful for the Clergy, and others, who would write much in a little Time. Printed for Samuel Lane at the Hand and Pen in Ball Alley in Gracechurch-lane near Houndsditch without Aldgate, and sold by Timothy Childe in St. Paul's Church-yard, and the Booksellers of London and Westminster.

We Thomas and Elizabeth Griffiths, who keep the great old publick News-Shop (commonly known by the Name of Mrs Bond's News-Shop) over-against the Blue Posts and Rummer Eating-House at Charing-Cross, do hereby certify, That by only putting about our Child's Neck at Three Months Old, the celebrated Necklace recommended by Dr. Chamberlen for Children's TEETH, it has now cut most of its Teeth, being near a Year Old, and never has had any Fevers, Convulsions, Pains, or such usual Illness, and Uneasiness, which commonly attend Children in breeding and cutting their Teeth; but has all this time (notwithstanding it has bred and cut so many Teeth) so thriv'd, and has all along been so healthy and well, that perhaps all England cannot shew a lustier, healthier, brisker, braver, merrier, and finer Boy, as any Person that pleases may be fully satisfied of, who will but give themselves the Trouble to come or send any to see the Child. Witness our Hands the 14th of August, 1716. Tho. Griffiths. Eliz. Griffiths.

This wonderful Necklace, pr. 5 s. with printed Directions in English and French for wearing it, is only to be had at one Pair of Stairs, at the Sugar-Loaf a Confectioner's Shop, over-against Old Round-Court near the New-Exchange in the Strand, and no where else. Where (for the Satisfaction of the World as to the real Virtue of this Sovereign Necklace) is given Gratis the Philosophical Essay dedicated to Dr. Chamberlen and the Royal Society, upon this Necklace, occasion'd by the great Increase of late Years in the Bills of Mortality, by which it appears that in and about London only, above 1800 Children yearly die of their Teeth, whereas out of the great Numbers of Children who of late have worn this Necklace, we do not know of so much as One that has died, but on the contrary, has breed and cut them without any Pain, and all the while thriv'd extreamly. Note, at the same Place is also given Gratis in English and French the 14th Edition, dedicated to Dr. Chamberlen, of the Practical Scheme of secret Injuries, and broke Constitutions, by fair living, former ill Cures, Salivations, and Mercury.
